

Name:

		Evidence
Ideas		1. I can discuss writing similar to that which I am planning to write in order to understand and learn from its structure, vocabulary and grammar.
Organisation		2. I can orally organise and retell what I am going to write building in rich and varied language and a range of sentence structures.
		3. I am starting to use paragraphs to group related ideas.
		4. I can begin to create the character, setting and plot within narrative writing.
		5. I can use organisational devices to structure non-fiction text writing e.g. headings and sub-headings.
Voice		6. I can read aloud what I have written with appropriate intonation, controlling tone and volume to make the meaning clear.
		7. I can discuss what I have written, proposing changes to grammar and vocabulary to improve consistency, and give relevant feedback to another pupil about their work.
Word Choice		8. I can use powerful words which add detail to engage the reader and avoid repetition.
		9. I can embellish simple sentences including using expanded noun phrases.
Sentence Fluency		10. I can extend the range of sentences with more than one clause by using a range of conjunctions, including when, if because or though .
		11. I can begin to use a range of fronted adverbials.
Grammar		12. I can use and punctuate direct speech.
		13. I can use commas after fronted adverbials.
		14. I can use the correct form of 'a' or 'an'.
Spelling		15. I understand the difference between the plural and possessive use of 's' and use it in my writing using apostrophes accurately.
		16. Use some prefixes and suffixes and understand how to add them ( English Appendix 1)
		17. I can recognise and spell some homophones.
		18. I can use the first 2 or 3 letters of a word to check its spelling in a dictionary.
		19. I can spell some common exception words from the year 3 / 4 word list.
Presentation		20. I use the diagonal and horizontal strokes that are needed to join letters.
		21. My continuous cursive writing is easily readable to myself and others.

