

Psalm 51

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.

Have mercy on me in your goodness.

With your love so tender remove every fault.

O wash me clean, wash me clean of my guilt and cleanse me from my sin.

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.

I see my offences so clearly;

My sin I see always; each day of my life.

Against you Lord alone have I sinned:

Such evil in your sight.

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.

The joy of your help I seek again;
My soul with the strength of your Spirit sustain.
I cry to you: Lord open my lips,
And I shall sing your praise.

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.

A pure heart create for me, O my God: A spirit of love within me.
