

Wednesday 27th February

L.O. To write an anaphoric poem

The magic Chocolate Box

I will put in the box

Crunchy, rich truffles surrounded by creamy coated mouthwatering hazelnut chocolate.

Full of flavour, crunchy minty chocolates decorated with glowing silky chocolates.

I will put in the box

A sphere of sapphires, and a cone of cobalt sky.

A rhombus of rubies to light up the darkness.

A pyramid of satisfaction so you never get bored.

My box is fashioned from a diamond
sire and acid,

With gold on the lid and bones in the corners.

Its hinges are made from jewels.

I shall ride in my box on a lion
the ocean.