

Dear Parents,

Here is the planning for this week. Please, take some photos of your children's work where applicable and send to class4@st-edmunds-rc.oxon.sch.uk. Alternatively, the children can share their work on our class blog. Please, make sure they write the date and L.O. in their book and take care with the presentation and punctuation.

Thank you for your help and support.

Gospel Worship

I am pleased to be able to share the weekly worship from 'The Mark 10 Mission', so you can continue to watch it. It's even better for you to take part from home, as you can join in with the singing.

Please, click on the link <https://www.themark10mission.co.uk/theepisodes/seriesthree> to access the most recent episode. There, you will also find an option to print the Gospel if you want to.

Unit: Lent

L.O. To explain the meaning of Lent

As we have started the season of Lent, today I would like you to try and explain the meaning of Lent. Why do we need Lent? What do we focus on during Lent? To help you answer these questions and to make sure you understand the true meaning of this season, please read the information in the PowerPoint (attached), where you check what you already know about Lent, then read what's important in Lent and how to prepare during Lent.

Writing activity

- Bronze – Make a list of five things that are important in Lent, starting with the most important first. Try to explain why they are important.
- Silver & Gold – Create an information page, explaining about the meaning of Lent. Try to use as much information from the PowerPoint as you can. Also, read an example of such a page (attached), to help you create your own one.

L.O. To learn Mountain vocabulary

Today I would like you to follow these two links to get familiar with Mountains vocabulary.

On the first website, you will read a conversation between two friends. One of them is describing a holiday to the Alps that he went on with his family. From the context of the conversation try to work out the meaning of the key Mountain vocabulary. When you finish reading, do the quiz at the end to check if you were right:

<http://www.blairenglish.com/exercises/geographical-english/exercises/english-mountain-vocabulary/english-mountain-vocabulary.html>

On the second website, first read the definitions of the Mountain vocabulary (there are pictures and examples of sentences too), then test what you've learnt in the 'Vocabulary Training' section. Finish by completing the 'Word and Image' activity:

<https://www.learning-english-online.net/vocabulary/environment-and-nature/countryside/mountains-hills-and-valleys/#more>

Science

L.O. Properties of solids, liquids and gases

Today we start a new unit 'States of matter'. In today's lesson you will learn about the three states of matter, the properties of each state of matter and how to identify which state of matter a substance is in.

First, follow the link to watch the Oak Academy lesson:

<https://classroom.thenational.academy/lessons/what-are-the-properties-of-solids-liquids-and-gases-6gv30d>

Then, use the PowerPoint 'Solid, Liquid or Gas' (attached) to help you understand more and complete the two activities (attached).

L.O. To practise using Mountain vocabulary

Today I would like you to practise using the Mountain vocabulary you've learnt on Wednesday.

Your first activity is 'Mountains Vocabulary Matching Game' (attached), where you need to match the word to its definition by writing the correct word in the box. (Bronze – 1 star, Silver – 2 stars, Gold – 3 stars)

The second activity is 'Mountain vocabulary' (attached). First, you will need to find examples of words that have something to do with mountains. See if you can come up with examples for each letter of the alphabet! In the second part you need to write definitions for the mountain words. The final part is matching the words with the correct definitions.
